Oysters and Cream.
The Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church will serve oysters and cream at the new Nicholson hotel Thursday and Friday of this week from noon until 5 p. m.

Negro Released from Jail.
A negro, Jim Primus, from Columbia, who has been confined in the county jail for the last two weeks, was released yesterday after furnishing bond. Primus was employed at Catawba Falls and was sent up for drunkenness and resisting an officer.

Railway Shops Destroyed.
The shops and round house of the Seaboard Air Line at Abbeville were totally destroyed by fire Saturday night. Five locomotives were destroyed and the sixth was partially destroyed. The loss on the buildings and the rolling stock will probably exceed $100,000.

Pension Board Meets.
The county pension board met in the office of Sheriff Peden yesterday morning with the following members present: Capt. W. H. Edwards, Daniel and J. Wesley Wilkes. Only routine work was transacted. Four applications were received favorably, while others were rejected. Several others were carried over on account of their being improperly presented.

Woman Badly Burned.
The wife of Francis Davis, colored, who lives just beyond the Seaboard depot, had the misfortune to be badly burned a few days ago while standing near a wash pot in her back yard. The flames leaped up and ignited her clothing, burning the woman badly around the body and limbs. Fortunately she had presence of mind enough to throw herself into a mud puddle, and this probably saved her life. Dr. H. E. McConnell was called by her, and while he pronounces the burns serious he thinks that the woman will recover.

Looks Bright for Bolls.
President D. B. Johnson, of Winthrop College, who was one of the members of the house judiciary committee a few days ago, speaks as follows about what the outcome of the matter will probably be.

"While I cannot yet say what will be the outcome of the hearing before the judiciary committee a few days ago, I feel no hesitancy in saying that prospects look bright for both Rock Hill and Chester."

The Rock Hill people are in no way fighting the interests of Chester, and if they are able to secure the federal court it will not inconvenience us in the least so long as we are equally successful.

Attempts to Pass Bogus Check.
A white man who has given his name as Jones and again as J. A. Simons on a check Thursday evening attempted to pass it on to J. J. Starnes. He made a small purchase having the change sent the check in to an adjoining store, where it seems the fellow had already made an effort to have the check cashed. When Mr. Starnes returned the customer had vanished leaving him the possession of the check. The check was for thirty-eight dollars, payable at the Exchange Bank.

In conversation with Mr. Simons the fellow stated that he is a railroad man and that he has made his home in this city for the last five weeks. Mr. Simons takes no stock in any part of the story, as he is more or less intimately acquainted with all of the railroad men who make his better their headquarters.

Jones or Smith, whichever or who he may be, is described as a heavy set fellow with a mustache. When last seen he was wearing a blue army shirt. The police are at work on the case.

FOR SALE. Good standard bred, home raised mare, four years old, dark bay. Apply to Jno. M. Wise, first door, Agate building.

Only Routine Work Transacted.
The county commissioners held their regular meeting yesterday in the supervisor's office, with all but one member of the board present. Only business of the routine kind was transacted. The Woods Ferry matter was not discussed as the power company has not yet formulated a response to the proposition recently submitted by the board.

THE CITY MARKET will sell the next 1 week Native steers for the next 1 week.

Residence Changes Hands.
Supt. W. H. Hood has sold his handsome new residence on Sabala street to Mr. R. M. Strange, of Richburg. Mr. Strange will bring his family to Chester about July 1st. His mother-in-law, Mrs. O. A. Wylie, will make her home with the family.

Mr. Strange is the travelling representative of the Miles Shoe Co. He is affable and enterprising and with his family will constitute a most welcome addition.

Plum bushes are beginning to burst into bloom, and there are other evidences of an early spring, despite the groundhog's warning to the contrary.

A FEW PAIRS of Homer pigeons left for sale. J. R. Culp.

Old Veteran Passes Away.

With the death of Mr. W. R. Wix yesterday morning at the home of his son, Mr. J. W. Wix, on Sabala street, another gallant old soldier passed away to answer roll call on the other side. Mr. Wix had been in failing health for a long time, having never thoroughly recovered from a spell of grip from which he suffered four years ago.

Mr. Wix was born in Union county. At the outbreak of the Civil war he enlisted in defense of his section and served with credit throughout the bloody struggle. He was a member of Co. B, 1st S. C. Cavalry. When peace was made he returned to his home and shortly afterwards settled in the neighborhood of Woodward church, in this county, where he continued to reside up to the time of coming to Chester.

Mr. Wix was a good man and a devoted Christian. He was a loyal and devoted member of the Baptist church. He reared a large family, and of these the following remain to mourn his loss: Messrs. J. W. Wix, Jr. and T. D. Wix, all of this city, and Mrs. M. E. Wix, of Chester. Mrs. Wix and H. T. Farnham of Fairfield county and Mesdames E. A. Weaver and Thos. Farnham, who live on the old home place near Woodward church.

The funeral exercises will be conducted at Woodward church at 12:30 today by Rev. J. S. Snyder, and the body laid to rest along with those of old friends and relatives with whom he worshipped for so many years.

FOR RENT. Room cottage on Academy street. All modern conveniences. Apply to Mrs. J. H. Smith, 2-64.

Mrs. Louie Harris has returned from a two weeks visit in Charlotte.

Miss Carrie Taylor, of Rock Hill, who has been visiting Mrs. W. G. Nichols, went home Saturday.

Mr. J. M. Fudge went to Edgemore yesterday afternoon to see his brother, Mr. Charles Shiley, who is seriously ill.

Miss Maggie Jordan, of Bolman, spent yesterday in the city. Mrs. J. McFadden and Miss Emily Graham went home with her and will return tomorrow.

The fact that yesterday was sales day and the additional fact that there were to be a number of board meetings following a goodly crowd to the city.

E. M. ATKINSON has bought 14 head of stall-fed Native steers of J. E. D.

Mrs. E. E. Bower, who is teaching the Good Will school near Fort Mill, is teaching Sunday and Sabala with his sister and brother, Mrs. S. E. Colvin, and Mr. W. B. Bower.
